The Honorable Matthew M. Neely
United States Senate
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Senator Neely:

Thank you for your letter of 4 February 1954, with which you enclosed the application of Lieutenant [redacted] for employment with this Agency.

[redacted] application has been referred to our Personnel Office, and you may be assured that it will be given careful consideration. I am frank to state, however, that we are doing comparatively little hiring here at the present time due to current economies. As a general policy, we do not ask applicants to make a special trip to Washington for an interview until we have had an opportunity to review their personnel papers. If, after reviewing [redacted] application, it is determined that a personal interview would be advisable, we will be in touch with him directly.
As soon as a final determination has been made as to whether there is a suitable vacancy for him at this time, we shall be glad to let you know.

Your interest in the Central Intelligence Agency is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

OGC:WLP/blc (12 Feb. 54)
